

NOBODY IS LISTENING

(CHORUS)

You who talk with your hands
Don't you understand?
Nobody is listening
Right is stronger than might
No reason to fight
Nobody is listening to you,
no!
No one's listening to you, no,
no!

Two kids, they talk.
"Get lost! Shut up!"
They hurt with words
But that's not enough.
They use their hands
To show who's tough.
They hit, they cry.
They hurt, and why?
When you start to fight
Please stop and ask why.

CHORUS

Big Joe thinks he's cool
Because he wins every fight.
He thinks being strong
Is better than being right.

He thinks scaring people
Is better than being liked.
The biggest and the strongest
So often win the day.
It doesn't mean they're right,
Just that they got their way.

CHORUS

Violence on the TV
Is fantasy, fantasy.
Violence in reality
Means people cry or bleed.
The need to hurt is a sickness
It's a plague, it's a big mess.
Don't buy it, don't try it.
Black eyes are not prizes.
So hey! Use some words,
Not your hands.
Take a stand!

CHORUS
